- 1.2 The Inventory shall be segmented as per the detailed marketing and sponsoring rights set forth in the BCL Club Manual and based on the following general principles:
 - 1.2.1 All Clubs will follow the same rules, and the same Inventory per Club will be granted to the Organiser.

 - a)

The Organiser will own and manage the whole Inventory in the Qualification Rounds. The Organiser may transfer, at its discretion, some rights to the hosts and the participating Clubs.
 - b) The allocation of sponsoring rights (i.e. LED, media backdrops, etc.) between the Organiser and Clubs will follow the same rules for the Regular Season, the Play-Ins, the Round of 16 and the Play-Offs and will follow, in principle, a 50% Clubs – 50% Organiser split.

This competence is limited to the period of the Final Four and the disciplinary measures may not extend further than the end of the Final Four. For this reason, the Ad-hoc Judge must transmit to the Single Judge, within three (3) days from the end of the Final Four a detailed report of the facts and circumstances of the offence, together with all the official documents and evidence necessary for a complete evaluation.

9. Disciplinary Procedure

However, unless allowed by the competent BCL body as a witness or expert, no person other than the accused person may participate in disciplinary proceedings under this Code.
- 9.5 All persons under BCL's jurisdiction are obliged to comply with a summons to appear as a witness. Anyone failing to comply with a summons may be sanctioned in accordance with this Code. - 9.6 Parties shall be responsible for and bear the expenses of their representatives, experts, witnesses, legal counsel, etc.
