GREETINGS

FIBA ASIA President & Secretary General Welcome

Welcome to Amman! Welcome to the 2021 FIBA Women's Asia Cup!

Let us at the very outset place on record our sincerest appreciation and heartfelt gratitude to the thousands of health workers, front-line warriors, numerous voluntary organisations who have risen, and continue to rise, to the occasion to meet the challenges faced by mankind in recent history.

The pandemic has indeed thrown at us some of the toughest challenges. But like the proverb goes, the FIBA family has proven tough enough to get going.

The next fortnight or so is one of excitement at the Jordanian capital for various reasons.

For starters, the 2021 FIBA Women's Asia Cup marks the first time ever in the history of sport that West Asia will host the elite women's basketball teams of Asia. This region has seen and has made some tremendous progress in the last decade or so in terms of men's basketball. And the 2021 FIBA Women's Asia Cup presents a fantastic opportunity to act as a catalyst for the progress and development of women's basketball as well.

The quality of rosters and depth of competitive edge that the participants of the 2021 FIBA Women's Asia Cup bring to the fray, couldn't have been better to provide this spark.

Three out of the world's best eight teams of the FIBA World Ranking Women, presented by Nike, will be seen in action at Amman over the next few days. Incidentally, these very three teams also made it to the Quarterfinals of the Olympics women's basketball competition very recently in Tokyo.

Japan, who became the first Asian team in almost three decades to play the gold medal game of Olympics women's basketball competition, will come in with all guns blazing attempting to win their fifth successive championship. Challenging them will be two other Olympic Quarterfinalists Australia and China.

This provides ample evidence for the growth in stature, standing, and strength of women's basketball teams from Asia in recent times. But then, these results achieved by the above teams have been made possible only because of the stiff competition and tough challenges posed by the remainder of the teams in Division A of the competition here.

Therefore, it may well be more pertinent to say that the quality of games and competition at Amman over the next few days will certainly be the best ever seen in Asian women's basketball so far.

Given the enthusiasm and energy with the LOC of JBF has shown in the build-up to the event we can only be rest assured there will be no dearth on the organisational front too. JBF, along with the NOC of Jordan and the hundreds of volunteers who will work towards the success of this event, surely deserves a special note of appreciation and gratitude.

Also a special note of thanks is placed on record for all the partners – marketing as well as broadcast – who have been relentless in their support for FIBA competitions.

Good luck to all the participants!

Sheikh Saud Bin Ali Al-Thani FIBA Asia President
Hagop Khajirian FIBA Executive Director Asia

WELCOME TO JORDAN

Jordan Basketball Association

JORDAN
FEDERATION

From the heart of Amman in the hashemite kingdom of Jordan, the cradle of civilization and the crossroads of cultures, i wel- come you to the opening of the FIBA Women's Asia Cup. We are honoured to host the top teams from Asia and to carry out this championship for the first time in the west of Asia at such critical times.

We designed the logo of the championship to highlight various symbols which represent Jordan, including Petra- the unique rose red city, the Jordanian falcon and the intricate embroidery recog- nizable in the Jordanian national dress.

Due to covid-19, a bubble was forced upon you that confined you between your hotel and the court, which left you unable to visit the historical and touristic sites of Jordan. While nothing can replace experiencing Jordan's magic in person, today we wish that you get a feel of the Jordanian hospitality by interacting with the passionate volunteers, fans and organizers and to savor the delicious dishes of the Jordanian cuisine...

May you be blessed with strength, speed , a keen vision and the ability to soar at high altitudes, just like the golden falcon of Jordan, which is the symbol of our national teams. We wish you all success and fun while you compete for the most desired Cup – the FIBA Women's Asia Cup 2021.

Welcome to Jordan!

Mohammad Alayyan

EVENT LOGO

FIBA
WOMEN'S ASIA CUP
Jordan 2021

The official logo of the FIBA Women's Asia Cup 2021 incorporates several elements which highlights the unique identities of the host nation, Jordan, patterned on the iconic basketball.

An important icon of the country, the Falcon is featured soaring forwards and upwards as a symbol of carrying Jordan and this basketball tournament into a bright future. Also designed into the logo are two traditionally important features, Petra and the Thooob pattern.

Petra is a historic city in the southern parts of Jordan, known for the color of the stone from which it is carved. The "Red Rose City" has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1985 and is described as one of the most precious cultural properties of man's cultural heritage.

The Thooob is also a culturally significant symbol, recognized as garments which stand out for their colorful patterns.

HOST CITY

Amman, JORDAN

Amman, the capital of Jordan, is a charming city of contrasts and an exceptional blend of ancient and modern. The heart of the city encompasses the modern Abdali boulevard, hotels, restaurants and art galleries, comfortably hugging the cultural and historical sites from the Roman, Byzantine and Umayyad periods, authentic coffee shops and vibrant downtown markets echoing the sounds and sights of oldest times.

Amman - the land of peace, where mosques prayers echo over homes, cafes and markets, blending with bells and prayers from churches. It is home for many expatriates and refugees and known for the legendary hospitality of its people. The Citadel site, at the center of the downtown Amman, narrates the story of the city – the modern urban areas blending magically with its ancient and authentic character.

For the first-time ever, the FIBA Women's Asia Cup 2021 - Division A will take place in Amman, Jordan.

HOW TO QUALIFY FOR #FIBAWWC

FIBA
WOMEN'S BASKETBALL
WORLD CUP
AUSTRALIA 2022

The new Women's National Team Competition System came into effect in November 2019, setting out the road to all of FIBA's main women's competitions over a four-year cycle, including the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022.

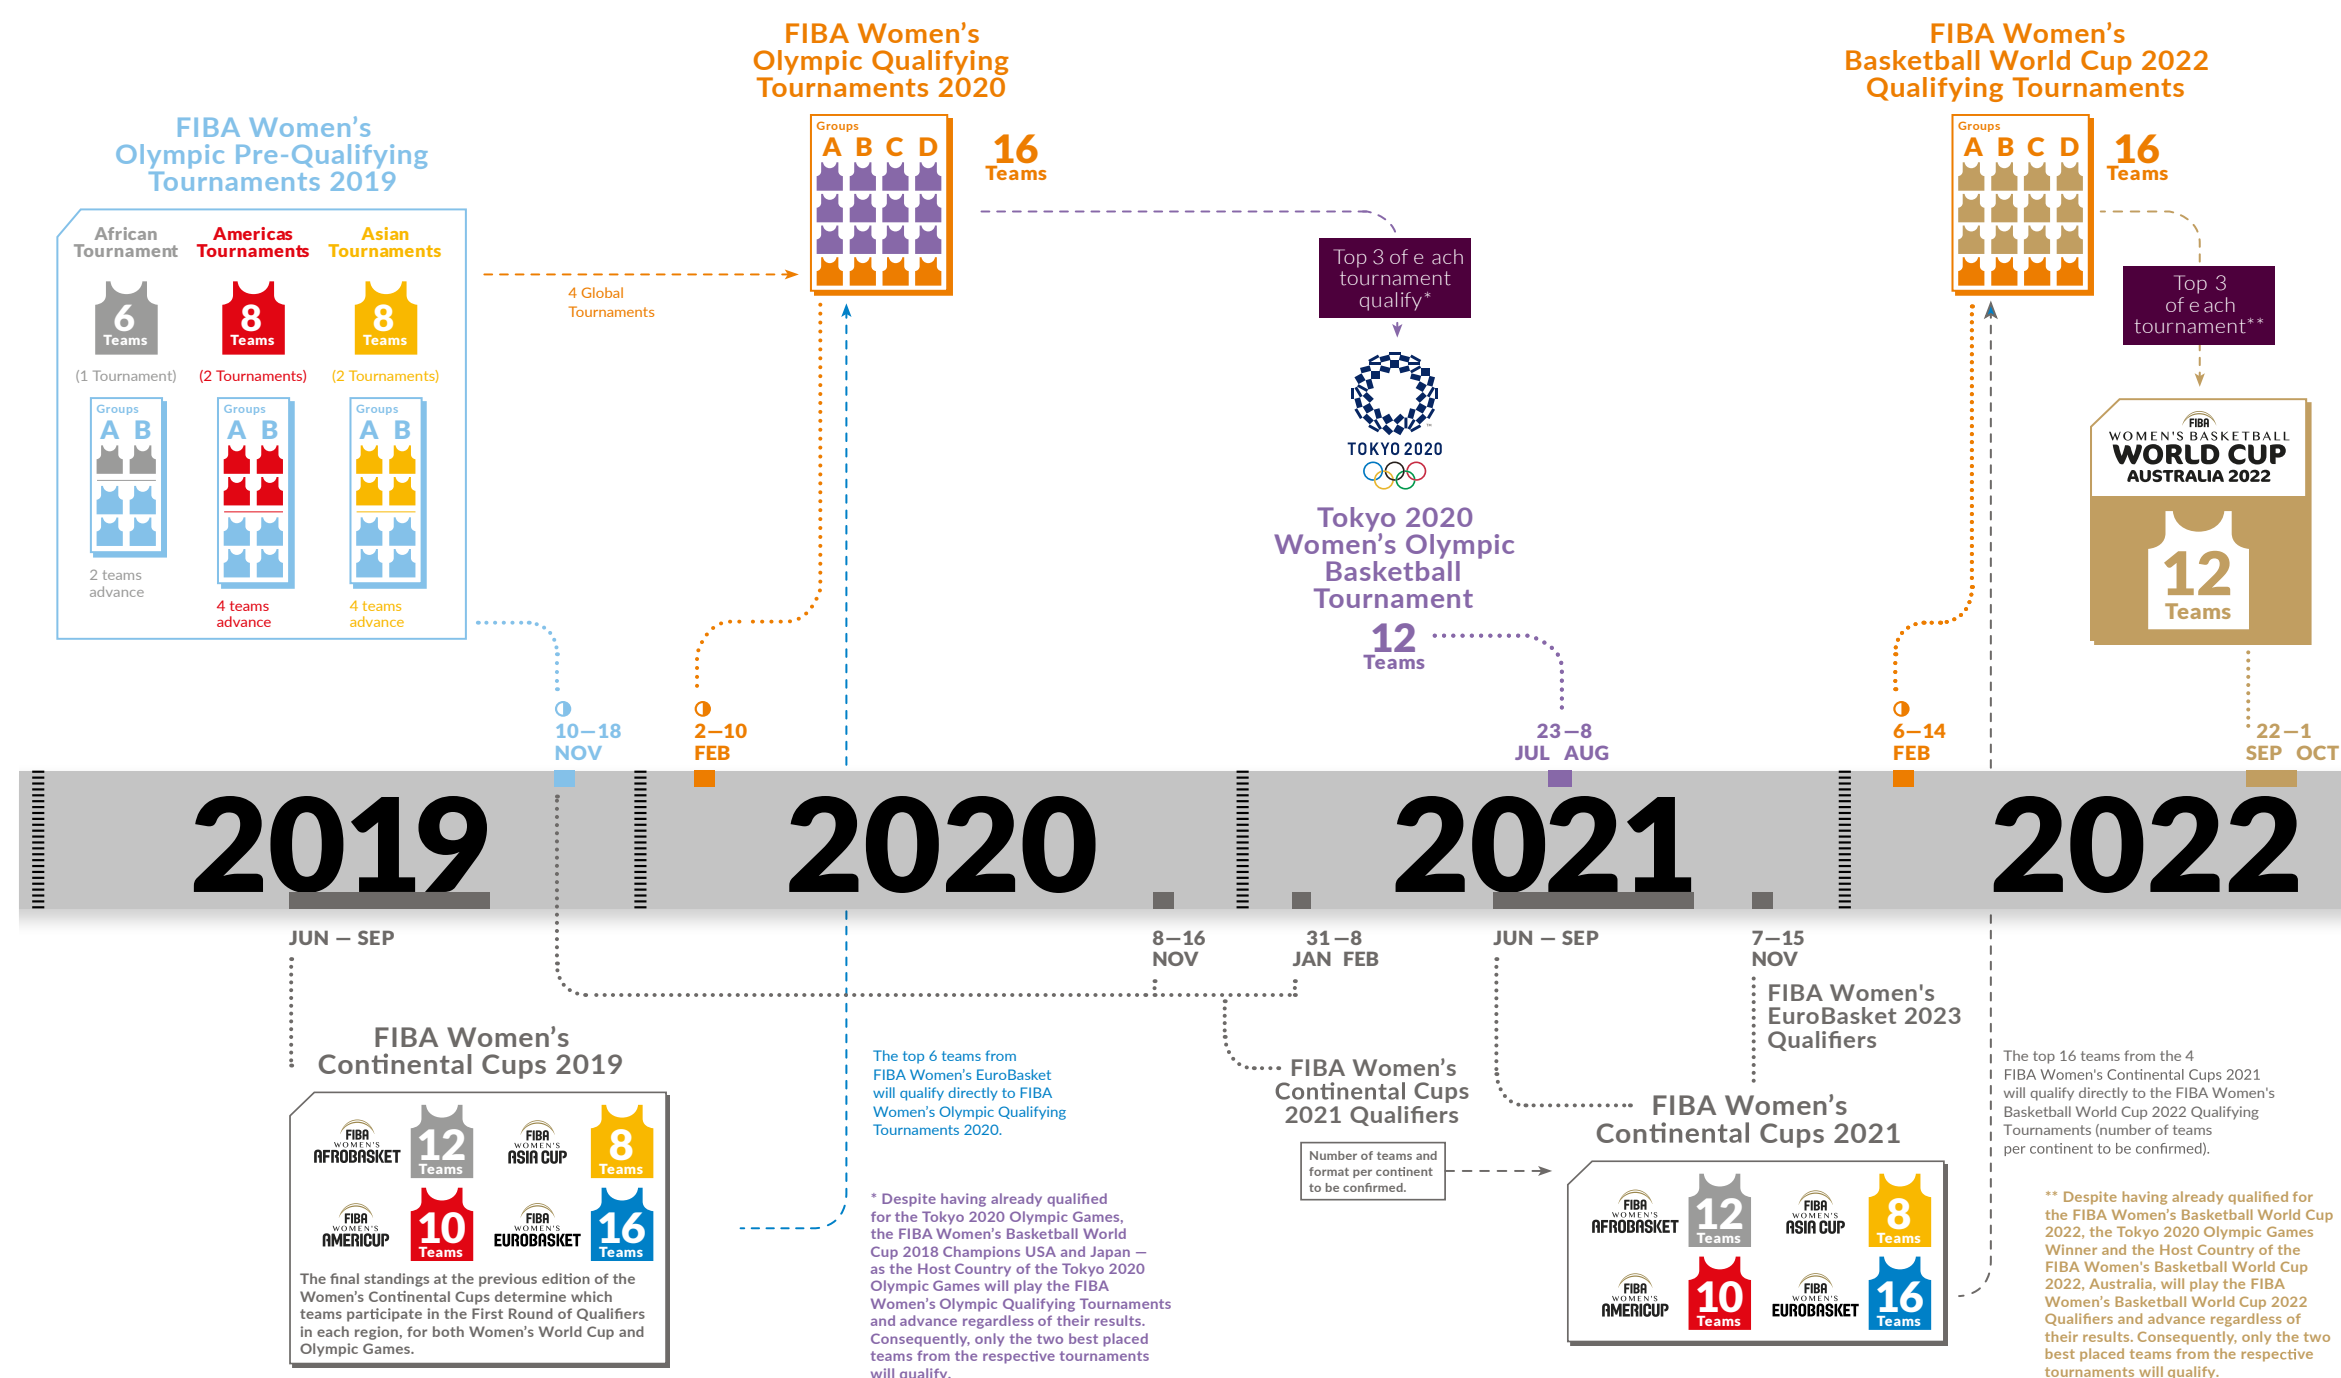

National teams will qualify for the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup - FIBA's flagship women's competition - via four global FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 Qualifying Tournaments in February 2022. The qualifying tournaments will feature a total of 16 teams, determined by their results in the four FIBA Women's Continental Cups 2021 as follow:

FIBA Women's AfroBasket 2021: Top 2 teams
FIBA Women's AmeriCup 2021: Top 4 teams
FIBA Women's Asia Cup 2021: Top 4 teams (including the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup Host 2022 Australia)
FIBA Women's EuroBasket 2021: Top 6 teams

The tournaments will feature four national teams each, with the top three from each qualifying for the FIBA Basketball World Cup 2022 to complete the 12-team field for the main event.

The host of the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022, Australia, and the United States, winner of the Women's Olympic Basketball Tournament, will participate in those qualifiers, however, they do receive automatic qualification for the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022.

The FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 will take place from September 22 - October 1, 2022, in Sydney, Australia.
