FIBA PRESIDENT AND SECRETARY GENERAL GREETINGS

Dear Friends,

On behalf of FIBA, we are pleased to welcome you to the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 Qualifying Tournament.

These four Qualifying Tournaments are part of the women's competition system which was introduced in 2019 to ensure a clear pathway for teams to reach FIBA events. In doing so these tournaments also help enhance the exposure of women's basketball, with more regular national team games being played around the world throughout the year.

The four Women's World Cup qualifying tournaments, which are being played in Belgrade, Serbia, Osaka, Japan and Washington D.C., USA, will each feature four nations – all of them with their eyes set on reaching the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 in Sydney, where 12 teams will converge on the iconic Australian city to challenge for the 19th women's world title from September 22 to October 1. The top three teams of each tournament will book their tickets to Australia.

The FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 also represents a critical component in FIBA's Women in Basketball strategic effort. FIBA is committed to improving the role of women at all levels of the sport, ranging from increasing the number of female players, coaches and officials, to getting more women involved in the governance of the game, to bringing more female fans closer to basketball. FIBA's flagship women's world cup event is of the utmost importance in those efforts when the world's eyes will be cast upon the greatest female players, coaches and officials from across the globe.

Despite COVID remaining a challenge more than two years into the pandemic, FIBA has successfully organized more than one hundred events around the world over that time – tournaments that place an absolute urgency on the safety of the participants and organizers alike. These Qualifying Tournaments will also be played under FIBA's strict protocol to ensure the health and safety of all involved.

In closing, we would also like to take this opportunity to express our sincere thanks to the hosting National Federations of Serbia, Japan and the United States and also to the Dominican Basketball Federation for hosting two games of the Washington D.C. tournament, which have been moved due to travel and health restrictions. We are sure that their dedication and commitment will make this year's FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 Qualifying Tournaments the best they can be.

WORLD CUP 2022 QUALIFICATION

The new Women's National Team Competition System came into effect in November 2019, setting out the road to all of FIBA's main women's competitions over a four-year cycle, including the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022.

National teams will qualify for the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup - FIBA's flagship women's competition - via four global FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022 Qualifying Tournaments taking place from February 10-13, 2022. The qualifying tournaments will feature a total of 16 teams, determined by their results from the four FIBA Women's Continental Cups 2021 as follows:

FIBA Women's AfroBasket 2021:

Mali, Nigeria

FIBA Women's AmeriCup 2021:

Brazil, Canada, Puerto Rico, USA

FIBA Women's Asia Cup 2021:

Australia, China, Japan, Korea

FIBA Women's EuroBasket 2021:

Belarus, Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, France, Russia, Serbia

The tournaments will feature four national teams each, with the top three from each qualifying for the FIBA Basketball World Cup 2022 to complete the 12-team field for the main event.

The host of the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022, Australia, and the winner of the Women's Olympic Basketball Tournament taking place in Tokyo in 2021, will participate in those qualifiers, however, they do receive automatic qualification for the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup 2022.

まったく同じ一日はない。だから、今日も新しいニュースを届ける。

まったく同じ人はいない。だから、さまざまな声を発信する。

朝日新聞デジタルは、世の中の出来事を伝えるだけではない。

「多様性」、その生き方や考え方の“違い”を大切にして、多くの人に伝える。

知ることが認め合うきっかけになる、と信じているから。

知ることでより良い未来を描いてほしい、と願うから。

世の中に溢れる誰かの言葉も、情報の真偽も、

さまざまな視点で見て、聴いて、考えて、もがいて、確かなカタチで届けたい。

きょうも、あしたも、伝えたいニュースがある。

今を生きるあなたに役立つ情報を、あなたらしく暮らすために。

FIBA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL WORLD CUP QUALIFYING TOURNAMENTS HISTORY

A new and exciting chapter is being written in the FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup in 2022.

For the first time, four four-team qualifying tournaments are being staged, in Osaka (JPN), Belgrade (SRB) (two) and Washington DC (USA). (Santo Domingo (DOM) will also stage two of the games – Russia v Belgium and Russia v Puerto Rico – that were originally slated for Washington).

Ten of the teams that will eventually help make up the 12-team World Cup (September 22 to October 1) must clinch their berths in the fourth qualifying tournaments, while Australia as hosts and the USA as Olympic champions are already assured of spots in the Sydney field.

So, from February 10 to February 13, a total of 16 countries Africa, the Americas, Asia and Europe will trade blows with the aim of making it to the World Cup in Australia.

If the extra layer of qualification creates a pressure-packed but exciting five days for countries taking part, it also provides the opportunity for each to have valuable time on the court, as well as keeping women's basketball in the spotlight.

So how did the teams earn spots to the four World Cup qualifying tournaments? At last year's FIBA Women's EuroBasket, six World Cup spots were up for grabs. Serbia defeated France in the Final, Belgium overcame Belarus in the Third-Place Game while Bosnia and Herzegovina and Russia came in fifth and sixth, respectively, to claim their berths in the qualifiers.

All four teams that made it to the Semi-Finals of the FIBA Women's AmeriCup will be in the Qualifiers since the USA captured the gold medal at the Olympics. Therefore, AmeriCup runners-up Puerto Rico, third-placed Brazil and also fourth-placed Canada advanced.

At the FIBA Women's AfroBasket, the two teams that reached the title game, winners Nigeria and runners-up Mali, earned qualifying tournament spots while at the FIBA Women's Asia Cup, champions Japan, runners-up China, Third-Place Game winners Australia and fourth-placed Korea claimed qualifying berths.

In previous editions, Continental Championships were used as qualifying events for the Women's World Cup.

For example, at the most recent FIBA Women's Basketball World Cup, in Tenerife, hosts Spain and Olympic champions USA had automatic spots in the tournament field, while 14 other teams joined them.
